Culture Night | Friday 17 September, 5-7.30pm

Come and join us for Culture Night at the Hugh Lane Gallery, where we will have a number of exhibitions and events including a temporary interactive artwork by Asbestos, who invites you to connect with the spirit of Joseph Beuys, and to play with the idea of creativity and destruction. No need to book, but space limited.

Outside the Walls Talk series | Thursday 7 October, 1pm

For this live talk in the gallery, join artist Stephen Burke who uses the materials and visual language of the built environment, to explore the contested nature of public space, and urban decay, in his distinctive work. Booking details to follow.

Outside the Walls Talk series | Thursday 11 November, 1pm

For this live talk in the gallery, join Berlin based American artist Brady Downey who works primarily outside the gallery to create work that straddles street art, architectural intervention, public art, and land art; in often humorous and inventive ways. Booking details to follow.

Artists' Takeover | Published on the home page of the gallery website from Friday 2 July

In the Artists' Takeover series, artists or cultural contributors share their personal recommendations for material to read, listen or watch.

Please note that more talks will be added to the programme – please check back for updates
