

Hiwa K: Do you remember what you are burning?

7 October 2021 – 13 February 2022

Public Talks Programme

VTS Sculpture Club | Wednesday 13 October 2021, 1pm

In this live online Visual Thinking Strategies session artist Claire Halpin will facilitate participants to view and discuss images of work from the exhibition. Visual Thinking Strategies (VTS) is an enjoyable method to look at art and to make meaning out of artworks collectively. Free but advanced booking required here

Hiwa K | Friday 15 October 2021, 1pm

Join us for a live online talk with artist Hiwa K, who will discuss both his work and the story of how he came to be an artist. Hiwa K's exhibition 'Do you remember what you are burning?' is currently on exhibition at the gallery until 13 February 2022. Free but advanced booking required here

Dr Ailbhe Kenny | Tuesday 26 October 2021, 1pm

'Welcome Notes? Music for Children living in Direct Provision'. Come and join us for this in-gallery talk with Dr Ailbhe Kenny, Lecturer in Music Education, Mary Immaculate College, who will draw on multiple studies and projects about children's musical participation while living through the asylum seeking system, exploring the importance of access to the arts. Free but booking required here or come on the day subject to availability.

Hugh Lane Gallery Culture Club | Friday 5 November 2021, 10.30am

Join us for an in-gallery talk on 'Do you remember what you are burning?' with Exhibition Curator Victoria Evans. Free but advance booking required, e: cultureclub@dublincitycouncilculturecompany.ie to reserve a place

Hugh Lane Gallery Culture Club | Friday 12 November 2021, 10.30am

Join James Kelly, Director of Feenish Productions, for an in-gallery talk on documentary-making as a vehicle for storytelling and its role in learning about societal issues. Free but advance booking required, e: cultureclub@dublincitycouncilculturecompany.ie to reserve a place.

Nasrin Golden | Friday 3 December 2021, 12.30pm

Please join us for an in-gallery talk with Visual Artist Nasrin Golden. Nasrin Golden is an Iranian/Irish Visual Artist who attempts to convey the healing and reconciliation of conflict inherent to the human condition. As a migrant living in Ireland since 2012, her work transcends cultural barriers as she aims to convey the commonalities underlying shared lived experiences. Free but booking required here via Eventbrite or come on the day subject to availability.

Coffee Conversation | Wednesday 12 January 2022, 11am

Join Head of Exhibitions Michael Dempsey for a live talk on 'Do you remember what you are burning?' Fee: €5, tickets available from the Gallery Reception on the day subject to availability.

Study Morning | Friday 4 February 2022, 10am – 1pm

Our Study Morning with guest speakers will explore themes relating to the exhibition Hiwa-K 'Do you remember what you are burning?' For further updates please see www.hughlane.ie

Free Sunday Public Tours of the collection and temporary exhibitions at 2.15pm from 7 November 2021. No booking required although numbers will be limited.

Hiwa-K 'Do you remember what you are burning?' is also explored through our art appreciation talks in conjunction with the Peoples College and UCD Adult education. Keep an eye on the Hugh Lane website www.hughlane.ie for further details and updates to our education programmes.

For any queries or more information please do not hesitate to get in touch:

Jessica O'Donnell, Head of Education and Community Outreach, jodonnell.hughlane@dublincity.ie

Cleo Fagan, Education Curator, cleo.fagan@dublincity.ie